"Expelled from her home by her over-protective and jealous father young Anna Lucasta is forced to confront life's inevitable fight for survival. When her family with their own piggish desires offers her a chance at "redemption" Anna accepts the refuge of home. A glimmer of feeling is present when she is introduced to a young, handsome man and Anna shocks them all by embracing true love only to encounter her own demons and the unforgiving father's vengeful plan that threatens to destroy the future she deserves..."
